

AC Immune CEO Andrea Pfeifer Receives Aenne Burda Award

Lausanne, Switzerland, May 17, 2022 – AC Immune SA (NASDAQ: ACIU), a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company pioneering precision medicine for neurodegenerative diseases, today announced that Dr. Andrea Pfeifer, CEO and a Director of AC Immune, will be awarded the prestigious Aenne Burda Award for Creative Leadership at the 22nd DLD Conference to be held in Munich, Germany, May 20-22, 2022.

Martin Weiss, CEO of Hubert Burda Media, commented: “Aenne Burda, was a trailblazing role model for women at a time when they were first emerging as professional leaders. We are honoring Dr. Andrea Pfeifer, with this award which recognizes her leadership as CEO and Founder of AC Immune, and her pioneering work, determination, and influence in the field of neurodegenerative diseases, such as Alzheimer’s and Parkinson’s, which have profound health, social and economic impacts on our global society.”

Prof. Monika Bütler, Member of the Board of Directors at AC Immune said: “We are proud that our CEO, Andrea Pfeifer, will receive this prestigious award. She is a globally recognized strategic leader, opinion maker and catalyst in the challenging field of neurodegenerative diseases, and a source of inspiration to us all. Most importantly, we welcome this influential award as an act of advocacy to support efforts worldwide to address the global pandemic of neurodegenerative disease with urgency.”

The Aenne Burda Award for Creative Leadership stands for courage, creativity, optimism, and the uncompromising belief in realizing creative goals. These attributes distinguished Aenne Burda as a female entrepreneur who is a source of inspiration for women of all generations. It is the first time a leader in Biotechnology will be honored with this award.

During the award ceremony, Dr. Pfeifer will be recognized for her role in developing AC Immune, a company she has led since 2003, into a global pioneer of new diagnostics and treatments for neurodegenerative diseases, including Alzheimer’s and Parkinson’s diseases. Neurodegenerative diseases are a silent, worldwide pandemic which increasingly impact health, lifestyle and global economics.

In leading AC Immune, Dr. Pfeifer has overseen the integration of deep scientific knowledge, cutting-edge technology platforms and industrial drug development capabilities, enabling development of one of the largest and most promising pipelines focused on neurodegenerative diseases in the industry, including multiple investigational vaccines, antibodies, small molecule drugs and diagnostic agents. Her global influence and dedication in the search for treatments for neurodegenerative disease are widely acknowledged.
